Popular Trio to Appear At El Camino Sept. 26

Folk songs will be the specialty of the Limelites, a nationally-known trio, which will appear on the El Camino campus Sept. 26 at 8:15 p.m. in the Women's gymnasium. Tickets are $1.50 for bleacher seats and $2 for chairs on the floor of the gym and are now on sale in the Student Store.

"Although tickets may be purchased at the door that evening, it would be wise to reserve seats beforehand."

K. C. Council To Show Films On Communism

Two films on Communism will be shown Monday, Sept. 18, at 8 p.m. at the Nativity Parish Auditorium, 1415 Encarnacion Ave.

The films to be shown are "Communism On The Map," a vivid description of the rapid spread of Communism in the world today, and "Accent On Youth," which explains the attack upon children.

All citizens should be aware of the menace which threatens us depicted by these two informative films, sponsors say. There will also be a talk about how we can become better informed with the devious workings of the Communist mind. Study groups is the way individuals are advised to fight Communism at the grassroots level according to booklets supplied by the superintendent of documents of the United States government.

The public is invited to attend. There is no admission charge. This program is sponsored by the St. Gerard Council, Knights of Columbus.

Miss Henrietta C. Martin, assistant director of student personnel, advised.

THE LIMELITES are composed of Alex Hassilev, a bongo player; Louis Gottlieb, a bassist; and Glenn Yarbrough, a guitarist.

The act began when the three met in May, 1959, in a small town in Colorado. They were booked at the hungry 1 in San Francisco three months later, after which they played to 125,000 people in 30 major cities.

They also have a top selling album to their credit called "Tonight: In Person, The Limelites."

"When someone says to you, 'Now, I'm going to tell you the truth'—ask him what he has been telling you." — Edward J. Franta, Cavalier County (Langdon City, N.D.) Republican.

POPULAR TRIO... The Limelites, will be featured Sept. 26 in an 8:15 p.m. performance in the women's gym of El Camino College under sponsorship of the Associated Students. The public is invited to attend the musical event which features (from left) Alex Hassilev, Glenn Yarbrough and Louis Gottlieb.

BACK IN TOWN... Marv Blue and his famous group, the Marv Blue Trio, opened a return engagement at the Bowl-O-Drome Monday evening featuring the dynamic saxophone stylings combined with vocals and comedy. The group will appear six nights a week at the popular Torrance lanes at 220th St. and Western Ave.

Insurance Firm Promotes Local Man to New Post

Torrance resident Stephen T. O'Hare has been named superintendent in Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co.'s field office administration department. The promotion was announced this week by E. E. Brown, director of the department.

Brown said O'Hare will now take responsibility for administering the department's personnel and salary policy. He will also direct all field office systems and procedures. The Torrance man holds a bachelor's degree in social studies from St. John's University and a master's degree in education from Stanford.

He joined Pacific Mutual in 1957 and has served in the Los Angeles-based company's policeman's service, policy change, underwriting, and actuarial departments as well as field office administration.

Active in community affairs, O'Hare has been the American Cancer Society's special gifts chairman for downtown Los Angeles.

He and his wife, Phyllis, live at 1166 Levinson.

"Lawrenceburg is still trying to maintain its precarious identity as a typical American city. Every now and then you can buy something that wasn't made in Japan." — Charlie Crawford, Lawrenceburg (Tenn.) Democrat-Union.
